

A POEM ON MOTHER ST JOHN MARCOUX

A stalwart leader, a faithful guide,
Mother St John Marcoux, our Congregation's pride,
Strong and courageous, she paved the way, for generations to come, come what may.

A soul so kind, a heart true,
Mother St John Marcoux, a life anew,
Faith guiding her, through trials and might,
A beacon of hope, shining so bright,

With heart aflame, she served the Lord,
Her love for God, a flame that burns deep,
A woman of Faith, a heart of gold,
Mother St John Marcoux a story to be told.

With compassion she served, the poor and weak listening ear, a helping hand to seek,
Empowering women, a vision to untold.
Inspiring all, to a love that would keep.

May her legacy, of kindness and love,
Inspire us all to rise above,
Her legacy lives on, a testament to her might,
Inspiring us to serve, with faith and delight.

May her example, courage and faith,
Guide us forward, on this journey of breath,
Honouring her memory, we strive to be,
A Congregation of love, compassion.
